

| Aspect           | Summary                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Objective        | Ensure continuous education and skill development in rural areas without dependency on internet, electricity, or trained digital teachers.                                     |
| Problem          | No reliable internet   Intermittent electricity   Teacher shortages   Language barriers   Digital systems fail in villages                                                     |
| Tirubaa Solution | Solar-powered, fully offline digital education infrastructure with preloaded learning and skill content.                                                                       |
| Key Capabilities | 150+ learners simultaneously (field-tested)   Zero buffering   K-12, Skills, Computer, Menstrual Education   Local language content creation   No technical expertise required |
| Impact Areas     | Village schools   SHG-led Digital Teachers   Adolescent girls' education   Youth skill development   Remote & tribal regions                                                   |

Patented 2380/MUM/2015

Offline digital education infrastructure — built for villages,